

WHAT IS OUR PURPOSE?

The CCS Coordination Committee advises and assists Walworth County in developing and overseeing the quality of CCS services and the protection of client rights. The CCS Coordination Committee includes the person receiving CCS services, county staff, service providers, community mental health and substances use advocates, family members, and other interested parties. At least one-third of the memberships are to be consumers.

The mission of the committee is shaped by state program guidelines geared to ensure quality improvement.

Comprehensive Community Services Coordination Committee

Who Can Attend?

All Community members are welcome to attend. You do not need to join in order to attend the meetings.

Why Join?

1. Learn about and experience the bigger vision of the many services available to consumers inside and outside of CCS/CST.
2. Meet others with successful recovery experiences.
3. Help others with an effective recovery program with proven results.
4. Enhance your own recovery by knowing the good you are doing and keeping a positive outlook by helping others.
5. See the results of a successful, powerful recovery program.

How Do I Join?

Attend a meeting to see if you are interested. After the meeting, a committee member will be available to answer any questions you may have. If you are interested in joining, let us know and you will be paired with a current member to help you through the process.

What Happens at the Meetings?

Committee members and participants:

1. Review and make recommendations regarding CCS/CST program improvements and quality assurance of services;
2. Advocate for and educate the public and consumers;
3. Review program surveys;
4. Plan activities;
5. Ensure consumer rights are being provided for;
6. Provide community updates.

When are the Meetings?

All meetings are held from 11:00 am until 1:00 pm.

What are the Meetings Like?

The committee meets four times or more per year and the meetings are open to the public. There is a formal agenda for each meeting, but the atmosphere is friendly and supportive and participants are encouraged to share ideas. An opportunity for sharing information regarding relevant community events is also provided.

Committee members include community members, consumers and family members of mental health and substance use services, mental health and substance use treatment professionals, and program staff.

Program updates and goals are discussed as well as planning specific actions geared toward program improvement.
