

Living Snow Fence

Walworth County Public Works Department would like to thank the Pearce Family Farm for their generosity of creating a “Living Snow Fence” by leaving a few rows of corn, a ¼ of a mile along their property near the intersection of CTH-F and STH-67. This thoughtful gesture will help alleviate the blowing snow from drifting along the highway making this section safer for motorists.